2011. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 510 Stagnate as a 'creepy caterpillar' or transform into a 'beautiful butterfly'-this path-breaking book of a rare genre suggests-is the seminal choice before mankind, and every one of us. In this setting, the book raises some fundamental questions: What is man's rightful place in the cosmos and his manifest destiny on earth? Why are we so self-righteously self-destructive? Are we a doomed species? Or 'divine' beings struggling to overcome the hubris of the human intellect? Is God getting weary of mankind? How should we synergise human effort and Divine Grace? The book posits that any betterment in human behavior needs a cathartic change at the deepest levels. That requires diluting the dominance of the mind and reawakening the long-dormant intelligence of the human heart. To meet that challenge, we need minimum numbers, a 'critical mass' to create self-sustained momentum for transformation through consciousness change. And every single human of this generation should behave in such a way that he or she is that single person whose transformation could make the decisive species-scale difference. The book offers a menu of ideas and an agenda of action. This book could be itself become an input to mobilize that very 'critical mass' it advocates for human transformation. About The Author:- Bhimeswara Challa is a 'double-retiree': he retired from the Indian Administrative Service in 1983 and from the United Nations in 1996. Alongside, he has also been a part-time but passionate writer, having published two novels in his mother tongue (Telugu), as well as numerous articles on a broad range of subjects in newspapers and journals in India, UK and USA....
