Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: . . . and a teacher, for our mission in West Africa. 6. We want a number of women and ordained men for work in Cuba, and ordained men for the work in Southern Brazil. 7. We are anxiously searching for a physician (woman) for work in a hospital in Shanghai. 8. Our needs for 1905 are: for Arabia, a physician and several evangelistic missionaries; for India, a physician and evangelistic missionaries; for China, a physician, a first-class educator and three evangelistic missionaries; for Japan, the principal of a college and several missionaries for each of our missions, North and South, who will give themselves exclusively to evangelistic work. 9. We hope to send one new man to India and another to Bolivia. 10. There are several positions that we are very anxious to fill and for which we have been trying to find qualified candidates for two or three years. We need two men for Africa, one a spiritually minded business man; an ordained man and a trained teacher for Brazil; three ordained men for evangelistic work in China; an ordained man for Japan; and an ordained man for Korea. We also want two trained nurses. This, I think, can be stated as the minimum of what we will call for next year. 11. We would like to send out during 1905 an industrial missionary and his wife to Africa. We have the money in hand, but have not been able to find properly qualified missionaries. This man...
