Excerpt: .Scripture to prove it plain That the Father of Christ on the Cross that bled Was a tyrant Will--Man s free-will vain And elected some to a future bliss And to singing psalms to a harp of gold: O Sam, you shuddered and yawned at this, And you blew your nose with a sudden cold! For, the week before, you had steered your boat O er the shimmering waters of Lag-aNayle; And you kened God s will in the lark s glad note, In the streams that sing and the ships that sail: In the light that broke down Ullin s dell Through the trees sweet grace and the river s glow, . In the chaunt of Anya s wizard well As it leapt to the rippling Aghavoe: In the small bird Christ saw flit in the air, And the lily that couched by the common way, And the grass kept safe in the Father s care, Not carked by the dread of the coming day. For the God, you said, writ clear in the Christ Was the Love that yearns through the Mother s pang; And for this, through the ages, sacrificed The patriot died and the poet sang. And for this the unchurched Samaritan Stooped down to the naked and wounded Jew; K And the priest and the Church, with scornful scan, Passed by: and the pence and the thanks were few: And the curses smote, with a war-rage fell, On the...
