Y., August 20th, 21st, 22d, and 23d, 1889 The Convention was called to order by Vice-President William J. Palmer, of Buffalo, N. Y., by whom the Mayor of the city was introduced. Hon. Phillip Becker, Mayor of Buffalo, then delivered an address of welcome, to which the Convention responded in frequent outbursts of applause. His Honor spoke as follows: Ladies and Gentlemen - Members of the Society of American Florists: I have the honor to extend to you a most cordial greeting on behalf of the authorities and people of the city of Buffalo, and venture to express the hope that your stay among us may prove as profitable and enjoyable to yourselves as your presence is gratifying and welcome to us, and that when you return to your homes you may take with you most favorable recollections of our young but vigorous city. I understand that this is your first visit here as a society, and provision has...
