Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Chief Modestly soliciting the indulgence of our readers for whatever shortcomings may appear in this little volume, we are herewith presenting The Chief for 1920. Without intending any disparagement to our predecessors, who acquitted themselves with signal credit by their splendid achievements, both in a literary and mechanical sense, we have undertaken a few changes, trusting they will not detract from the high standard that has been fixed through the earnest and conscientious effort of those, who have heretofore assumed the task of editing our school annual. Among the alterations we have essayed is a new color scheme. We believe that the mere liberal spirit of co-operation and good will that puts upon us the imperative responsibility of more active and more sympathetic support, not only on the part of the classes but the individual student as well. To this end and in the hope of further encouraging its development, we have embodied in our Annual the colors of the school rather than the colors of our class as had been the custom in former years. As an evidence of our appreciation of the splendid results they have obtained and as an expression of our gratitude for the substantial service they have rendered in carrying the standard of the Greenville High School well to the front in athletics as well as in educational activity, we have inserted the individual photographs of the members of our football and basketball teams. We have likewise endeavored to make this volume more attractive by adding to the number of stories it contains and the illustrations printed upon its pages. The special snap shots were taken by Leonard Blackwell....
