Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Fens and Floods of Mid-Lincolnshire: With a Description of the River Witham, in Its Neglected State Before 1762, and Its Improvements Up to 1825, With Maps, Plans, C The Author of this work having had an exceptionally long and intimate connection with the districts referred to therein, has gathered together many facts relative to the Floods and Rivers of the Fenny Parts of Mid-Lincolnshire, which most probably would soon fade from human recollection, were they not fixed by being published; he confesses to a strong desire to preserve his gatherings, in the hope that the knowledge of past works of drainage, c, may be of service to owners and occupiers of land in future years, and he would fain hope that the personal memoranda which he has interwoven with other details may, in many instances, be found interesting to the descendants of those persons who were concerned therewith. The Author asks that he may be permitted to show that he has some excuse for holding himself well acquainted with the country to which this work refers, and in the first place, he would mention his connection with the Ordnance Survey. Lincolnshire was surveyed somewhat earlier than it was originally intended to be, owing to the following circumstance.- About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
