From the five divisions of history select the one in which you are best prepared and follow the printed directions. DIVISION I: ANCIENT HISTORY Answer SIX questions as required in Part I, taking not more than two hours for this part of the paper. Devote the remainder of your time to writing two careful essays on subjects in Part II at the end of this set of examination papers. If in your school you have studied more than one division of history, choose as one of the two essay subjects a subject outside the field of Ancient History. Number the questions in your examination book as they are numbered on the examination paper. In answering all questions except the map questions, give some dates or indicate the time relation. Part I Group I....
