Excerpt: . . . 9 The relationship is especially strong when it comes to trade, 6 billion in trade are exchanged between our two countries. Coffee now is becoming a very big export, really destabilizing the coffee markets around the world, but the United States must make human rights a central focus of our policy toward Vietnam. The economic advances in Vietnam are reflected in the urban centers where civil economic and religious liberties are increasing and we see in many instances things happening in the urban areas. That is where people go. That is where foreigners visit. That is where things seem to be moving along. However, at the same time these freedoms are not experienced in the countrys rural areas and the picture that is developing is increasingly one that can be described as a tale of two Vietnams and we have throughout...
