SIR--You are hereby required and directed, after having received on board an officer belonging to the first battalion of royal colonial marines, to proceed in his majestys sloop under your command, without a moments loss of time, for Barritaria. On your arrival at that place, you will communicate with its chief, and urge him to throw himself upon the protection of Great Britain; and should you find the Barritarians inclined to pursue such a step, you will hold out to them that their property shall be secured to them, and that they shall be considered British subjects; and at the conclusion of the war, lands within his majestys colonies in America--(yet to be won, worthy admiral, said the governor, in parenthesis)-- will be allotted to them. Should you succeed completely in the object for which you are sent, you will concert measures for...
