Not illustrated. 1870 Excerpt: . . . have been in itself objectionable, and would also have led to an expenditure of public money which the Governor was not authorized to incur. The employment of the police was sanctioned by law, and has not been productive of any additional expense. The Governor much regrets that, owing to circumstances beyond his control, he has been obliged to retain some of them in Basutoland for many months; but he believes the Honourable Council would not wish them to be prematurely withdrawn, at the risk of renewed hostilities, at the very time when he has been endeavouring by his last communications to satisfy Her Majestys Government of the soundness of the proposed arrangements, and when the latest accounts go to show that the Basutos are rapidly evacuating the only tract about which there is still any question. The police will be withdrawn without any unnecessary delay. Government House, 27th August, 1869. Encl. 5 in No. 7. Enclosure 5 in No. 7. Mr. Molteno moved, seconded by Mr. Neethling: This House desires to represent to Her Majesty s Government that the Governor of the Colony having on the 27th August, 1869, caused to be laid on the table of the Legislative Council, in answer to an Address from that body, certain correspondence between himself and Her Majestys Government) in reference to the Basuto question, it has only now become acquainted with the tenor of that correspondence thus published; and with regard to his Grace the Duke of Buckinghams Despatch, No....
