Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Fort Stanwix Captive: Or New England Volunteer The war-worn hero of the following narrative, who was living at the time these pages were penned, was born at Weston, Fairfield Co. Conn, of respectable parents of the farmer class of society. At the time when the people of Boston, on account of the tea tax, and other grievances imposed upon the Americans by the British Parliament, Hubbell was an apprentice at a trade in the town of Fairfield, state aforesaid. But the bold act of the Bostonians, in throwing a ship load of tea into the ocean, performed by a band of men, disguised as Indians, roused in a moment the slumbering fires of the bosoms of all true patriots, throughout the entire country, and produced the great resolve that America should be free. Among the thousands of young men, and as many boys, Hubbell, though but an apprentice, counted one as a volunteer from Fairfield, under Capt. Dennon, of General Worcester's Brigade, who were to march immediately for Boston, in support of what...
