

The Power of Indignation: The Autobiography of the Man Who Inspired the Arab Spring

By Hessel, Stéphane; translation from French into English by E. C. Belli

Skyhorse Publishing, 2012. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 1st Edition, 1st Printing. First Edition, 1st Printing in English of this brand new hardcover with dustjacket; gift quality. Publisher's review materials slipped in. From the internet: The astonishing life of the writer named by the New York Times one of the last living heroes of the darkest era of the twentieth century. His brief pamphlet Indignez-vous! (Cry Out!) is an international bestseller, calling for a return to the values of his native France's greatest generation, the resistance fighters of World War II. It has inspired citizens participating in the Arab Spring and Occupy Wall Street uprisings. Now Stéphane Hessel, one of France's preeminent thinkers and activists, is back. With extraordinary insight, the ninety-four-year-old Hessel gives his intellectual autobiography. His thinking is nourished by the exchange he has maintained for years with his close friends, as well as prominent political and literary figures: Edgar Morin, Jean-Paul Doll, Daniel Cohn-Bendit, Régis Debray, Peter Sloterdijk, Laure Adler, Michel Rocard, and Jean-Claude Carrière. This book is accessible and profound; it is for all those who seek, despite the contradictions and violence of our contemporary lives, to regain our dignity as men and women while governed by a...
