Excerpt: .have been demarcated, and the people Jhuming. been enjoined that nothing but permanent cultivation within the marked area will be permitted, and that if they want to jhiim, they must do this outside the reserves. In the Lower Jiri reserve, there is especially great danger of j burning, on account of the proximity of Lakhipur and numerous smaller villages; but strict inj unctions have been given that they must confine j burning to the western slopes (those nearest their villages) of the Ramphan range, and on no account cross the ridge into the reserve. Yield and Working. 123. No timber operations are carried on by Government agency in the Cachar forest division for the present, but the license system formerly in vogue has been continued, and toll is levied at the rates quoted in para. 60 of last Annual Forest Report on timber and other forest produce exported from Cachar at the Sealtek toll-station, which, during the year under notice, has for the first time been managed by the Forest Department. Much intrigue has been going on about this, which it is supposed originated with the former lessees of this toll-station, who were hoping to get the collection of forest tolls again into their hands. The consequence of this has been that there was a falling off in the felling and export of timber from Cachar, which, however, is only a temporary consequence of the change of system, as may be predicted from the...
